

WILL NOT ACCEPT SECOND PLACE

Hitchcock Would Decline Vice-Presidency, He Says

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, announced Friday that he would not accept the Democratic vice-presidential nomination.

Senator Hitchcock's announcement was made in a telegram to Arthur F. Mullen, member of the Democratic national committee from Nebraska, answering a letter in which Mr. Mullen had said the senator was being prominently mentioned for the vice-presidency.

"I am not a candidate for vice-president and would not accept the nomination for second place," the telegram said.

The Democratic platform will not contain either a wet or dry plank, in the opinion of Senator Hitchcock, but he expressed the conviction that it will include a strong league of nations plank.

"I cannot conceive that the Democratic party will place a plank in the platform declaring for or against prohibition," he said. "Prohibition is not properly an issue between Democrats. If a dry plank were inserted it would mean the reading out of the party those Democrats who had not favored prohibition. If a wet plank were adopted it would mean that the men who believe in prohibition must be outside the party."

Girl Scouts' Camp Scene of Royal Festivity

A large interested audience, composed of parents and friends of the girls of Troop No. 3 Girl Scouts who for the past ten days have been camping in Blitzer's grove, one mile north of Scott's crossing, witnessed the open air entertainment given by the girls Thursday evening.

Guests made the trip to the camping ground in autos, and with them picnic baskets with all kinds of good things to eat. Over a campfire coffee was made, and scouts and guests formed in line and helped themselves at the well filled table.

Following the supper, or shortly after dark, the girls staged their show on a high mound of ground. The headlight from 15 autos, formed in semi-circle, furnished the light. Music for the dancing numbers was provided by a victrola and ukuleles. The first number was an "overall dance, in which the following girls participated: Maxine Eddy, Dorothy Lawson, Dorothy Dempster, Helen Hughes, Beatrice Spiker, Mildred Siderer, Betty Drake, Marjorie Green, Martha Laughlin and Lydia Buchanan.

In the "gypsy" dance were: Helen Hughes, Lydia Buchanan, Dorothy Lawson, Marjorie Green, Martha Laughlin and Betty Drake. Mrs. Charlotte Sherwood gave several vocal numbers, with ukulele accompaniment. Other numbers were: "Hoola" dance, Helen Hughes; "Novelty" dance, Maxine Eddy and Dorothy Lawson; ballet, Martha Laughlin; "Shimmy", Marjorie Green and Martha Laughlin; "White Peacock", Helen Hughes.

Mariam Kamerer, Esther Wohlgenuth, Beatrice Brandon and Helen Stolzenbach were characters in the original sketch "Mutt and Jeff." The program which was entirely original, was planned exclusively by the girl scouts without any assistance from their captain, Mrs. Robert H. Negley.

The troop, consisting of 27 girls, went into camp on Monday June 14 and will disband Saturday. They have enjoyed fishing, bathing and all manner of outdoor sports and are now as experienced as any of the boy scouts. The trip from the camp will be made in two large trucks furnished by Mr. Myster of the East Iron works.

GARBAGE DUMPER IS ARRESTED

William Allen to Face Trial in Criminal Court

The arrest Friday of William Allen, 28, colored, 155 Lafayette st., in one of the first steps according to police, of a campaign against the practice of dumping garbage in places other than a public dumping ground. Allen was arrested by Det. Sergeant Frank Eberle on a charge of emptying garbage on Vine st. Hearing was set for 9 o'clock Saturday.

This is a particularly hard offense to handle, Sergeant Eberle said Friday for the reason that juveniles are often responsible, but in this case it is a man who must answer to the criminal court.

The garbage dumping question was aimed at the first meeting of the city council and the point was brought out by City Solicitor Eberle that a prison sentence may be imposed on violators in addition to a fine. It is the determination of city officials to see that the ordinance, he said, is strictly enforced and a more strict lookout than ever is to be kept by police.

Service Director Elmer McClain said Friday he has been looking over the city for suitable places to be designated as garbage dumping grounds but up to the present there has found only two places which are suitable. One of these, the service director said is just opposite Fairport park along the North Shore Drive and the other is near the Hines stone quarry. He said these would probably be recommended to the council at the meeting Monday night unless more suitable locations are found before that time. McClain was instructed at the last meeting of the council to recommend three places to be designated as public dumping grounds.

CRUM WITHDRAWS FROM ATTORNEY GENERAL RACE

COLUMBUS — Phelps Crum, Cleveland, has formally withdrawn as a candidate for the Republican nomination for attorney general. This leaves Attorney General John C. Price unopposed for re-nomination. Mr. Crum's letter announcing his withdrawal was received by Secretary of State Smith shortly before noon Thursday. Crum stated his action was taken in the interest of party harmony. Secretary Smith acknowledged the letter of withdrawal and complimented Crum on his stand.

126, RECALLED TRIUMPHANT RETURN OF WELLINGTON

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. — Thomas Morris, probably the oldest man in the world, died here recently at the age of one hundred and twenty-six years. In his possession was an old family Bible with the record of his birth in North Wales, January 15, 1794. Morris remembered the battle of Waterloo and the only reason for his not being in the English army at that time was because of a deformed foot. He distinctly recalled seeing the Duke of Wellington upon the latter's return following the great victory over Napoleon.

FIFTY INJURED WHEN GRAND STAND COLLAPSES AT BAPTIST CONVENTION

BUFFALO — Fifty persons were hurt, several seriously Friday, when a grand stand, crowded with people attending the 13th annual convention of Northern Baptists, collapsed. The injured included: Mrs. Edwin Supple, unknown address, internal injuries; Rev. A. K. Scott, Percy, O., minor injuries.

DEFINITE LEAGUE STANDURGED

tenance of huge naval and military programs.

Hoover said it was not generally realized that the treaty is now in effect and cannot be scrapped. "Europe has retreated, but it has not waited upon, the divided mind of the United States," he said. "It is the guarantee of the disarmament of four great autocracies and no European nation is going to resist their revival."

Hoover said the covenant was an essential part of the treaty.

"There is, therefore, a primary fact, that all talk of making a new treaty is bunk; to revise the functions of the league in the prevention of war is possible."

"Therefore, my suggestions are, first, that it is worth consideration by the present members of the league whether immediate revision of the part mentioned should not be undertaken in order that it may be actually of greater strength for the great good it can accomplish. Second, such a revision will meet the needs of disension in the United States; third, whether it be today or ten years hence, we will, if we want peace, ratify the treaty of Versailles in some manner."

"In the face of these conditions, cannot the Republican party, French in its own position by adoption of the definite constructive policy of ratification subject to the minor reservations and a wider vision of strengthening the league by excluding the guarantees and their military enforcement, and making membership in the League conditional upon disarmament with in a given period? Such policies will prove American independence, free us from every possible entanglement except the use of our moral and economic strength to enforce peace. It will leave our democratic friends feeling upon the ground of advocacy of a practical military alliance upon which their safety devices only further endanger the real value of the league."

FOUND INCOMPETENT

W. Muran, barber, Pearl and Main sts., was found in an unconscious condition, Thursday night, lying between two of the chairs in his shop. He was removed to the City hospital in the Williams and Davis ambulance, for treatment. Mr. Muran had so far recovered Friday noon as to be able to leave the hospital.

MILLIONS IN SUPPLIES ARE BOUGHT FOR RUSSIA

NEW YORK — Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, unrecognized Russian agent "ambassador" to the United States, Friday signed a contract with a firm of Canadian manufacturing agents for the shipment of several million dollars' worth of foodstuffs, agricultural machinery and railroad equipment to Russia, according to reliable information here Friday.

The Canadian government is said to have approved the contract for which special banking arrangements have already been made in Canada and England.

The contract calls for large shipments of agricultural machinery, railroad equipment and general food supplies. Flour will constitute the first cargo.

DAYTON STRIKERS REFUSE COMPROMISE WAGE OFFER

DAYTON — Striking street car men employed by the six companies in Dayton, Friday refused a compromise of 60 cents per hour and say they will remain out until their demands for 70 cents are met. The compromise was attempted, following action by the city commission, agreeing to an advance in fares from five to seven cents. The companies, contending they are facing bankruptcy, say the two-cent increase in fares is not sufficient to meet the advance of ten cents an hour in wages. In meantime, Dayton walks or rides in jitneys at ten cents fare, according to the frame of mind the driver is in.

Thrift Discarded as Summer Time Arrives

Thrift-practiced by society women thru the winter months in the re-making of old dresses has been thrown to the winds with the first days of real summer.

Now they're ordering brand, new dresses in organdies, volles, crepes and gingham by the score, according to Lima dress-makers and those in charge of these departments in the ready-to-wear stores.

Comparatively few new dresses were made for Lima society folk during the cold weather, according to leading dressmakers. The idea of re-making came with the war, and proved such a delightful feature it provided to stay, caused rich and poor alike to make over everything possible and wear all the old clothes they could use.

But now the warm weather is setting in, the women want lots of pretty clothes, new ones, to keep them cool and dainty thru the hot days.

LAKEVIEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ENTERTAINS DISTINGUISHED LIMAITS

Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt wore a self-satisfied look Friday which he explained to callers at his office could come only from being filled with properly cooked turtle.

The mayor with Rev. J. Norman King, Jimmie Morton of the Lima Merchants Association and Professor Binkley were guests Thursday evening at a chamber of commerce rally held at Lakeview. While a small organization, the mayor said the Lakeview chamber is an organization which is full of pep and enthusiasm if the rally of Thursday is a sample of their usual style. E. J. Van Horn is president of the Lakeview organization.

They hope to be instrumental in causing the location of a proposed large power plant of the O. E. in Lakeview.

MRS. ELIZA WOLLETT IS SUDDENLY CALLED

Mrs. Eliza Ann Wollett, 48, wife of W. H. Wollett, 505 W. Kibby st., died Thursday night at the City hospital following an operation. She had been sick since Monday. Mrs. Wollett was born in Cambridge. Surviving are the husband, two daughters, Mrs. Egan Smith, 821 W. Kibby st., and Miss Florence Wollett, at home. Mrs. Wollett was a member of the Ladies of the Macabees.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock at Grace Methodist church. Rev. O. P. Hoffman will officiate and interment will be at Shawnee cemetery.

CHILDRENS' HOME MAY SECURE IMPROVEMENT

Allen co. commissioners visited the Children's home Thursday, at which time they completed arrangements for improvements to be made there. They inspected the building from cellar to garret and secured an estimate of the proposed cost of these improvements, which will be for the purpose of providing a more complete heating system and better sanitation. This will be asked shortly on the work.

YAQUI INDIANS IN MEXICO CITY

Fierce Fighters of Sonora Now Federal Soldiers

MEXICO CITY.—Once again the monotonous but ominous "tom-tom" of the Yaqui Indians is heard outside the confines of Sonora.

General Plutarco Elias Calles, provisional secretary of war and commander of the new revolution, is taking with him more than a thousand of these fierce fighters on his 1,000-mile trip from Azusa Prieta to Mexico City to assume the duties of his new office.

The drumming of the Yaqui drums has been a cause of uneasiness among many of Mexico's other soldiers. Bearing the reputation of being a fearless and ferocious fighter, the Yaqui has frequently been sent to be able to get his enemy to fight by the mere sound of his drumming, "tambo." There is another and less obvious side, however, to the life of a Yaqui soldier. He carries his home life with him to the battlefield. His wife, his children, his dogs all form part of his household.

When war is action, the Yaqui warriors are not present formulating figures. They may be detached from other tribes chiefly by their peculiar copper line and the band of bright red they wear around their hats. The routine of their camp life is quiet and orderly.

The Yaqui had been reared in an atmosphere of war. Should his father fall in battle, the boy picks up the ancestral rifle and begins the realization of his martial duties.

WEST STRONG FOR GOV. COX

Boosters. En Route to Frisco Find People Enthusiastic

FLOCK TO THE OHIO BANNER

Big Crowds Cheer Buckeye Candidate at All Stops

(BY J. W. FISHER)

Ahead of the "Governor Cox for President Special." En Route to San Francisco. "Somewhere in Colorado," June 21, 1920.

That there is a strong sentiment in the western states for Governor James M. Cox for President of the United States has been generously evidenced all along the line since the Ohio party left Dayton.

At every stop made, inquiry among the natives brings out the fact that the people are looking to Ohio to furnish the Democratic candidate, since Warren G. Harding of Ohio, has been nominated by the Republicans.

At Sharon Springs, Monday morning, a ten minute stop was made, the band played, the large American flag and the Governor Cox banner were displayed and enthusiasm of a genuine nature was found among the large number of people who assembled.

At noon, at Hugo, near the Colorado state line, another stop was made and there was more music and more enthusiasm. A small boy with a donkey, better known as a "Rocky Mountain Canary," appeared on the scene. The donkey was pressed in to service as a carryall for ladies of the party while the band concert was in progress and the kodak artists were busy with cameras. Enthusiastic members of the party endeavored to purchase the donkey, to be taken to San Francisco in the baggage car, but the young owner would not sell.

The song "Ohio" was sung with a will and large numbers of people of the little town assembled at the depot. Your correspondent queried natives of the various states at every stop made, concerning presidential preference and finds that there is strong sentiment against military men and very rich men for president. Neither of these objections would apply to Jimmy Cox.

At every place a stop is made, large numbers of Cox buttons are passed out and are eagerly received by the men and pinned onto the lapels of their coats.

"The Lincoln County Democrat," a paper "with a mission and without a muzzle," is published at Hugo. A copy of the current issue was secured and in its columns was found a fine boost for Governor Cox for the presidency. The Hugo paper says: "Governor Cox is a strong presidential candidate. Perhaps the presidential race will all be centered in Ohio. That state will present to the Democratic national convention the name of Governor Cox, because he possesses the capabilities for the service required under the peculiar conditions existing throughout the country."

"The Kansas newspaper refers to the convention at Chicago, staged by the Republicans as a 'dog fight' and a beautiful sample of 'Republican harmony.' A strong editorial appears in the Kansas paper named above, lambasting the Republican party, referring to the 'slaughter' at Chicago, the effort to buy the nomination by Republican candidates and adds that "never were chances any better to elect a Democratic president of the United States than in November. Honestly, the Democrats are sitting pretty."

Former Secretary of State of Ohio, Chas. H. Graves, a member of the party en route west, just came into the section of the Car 2, section 11, occupied by your correspondent and John Roser, of Dayton, brandishing a copy of the Big Four Daily, dated June 21, in his hand, looking for Howard Burba, who stated in an editorial therein that "since William Gibbs McAdoo has definitely refused to become a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, it has added 100 per cent to the chances of Governor James M. Cox in San Francisco."

"Why," said Mr. Graves, "there was no question about it at any time, with McAdoo or any other as a candidate. We started out to nominate Cox and we're going to do it. Put a pin there and remember it."

Graves and his friends threatened to sue the Big Four Daily for libel if the statement was not retracted. "They can't sue anybody else for President," Governor Cox. And in that they have the backing of every other person aboard the train.

The editor of the Big Four Daily, Alan Rogers, smiles contentedly. "You know a newspaper never amounts to much until it draws a libel suit, or a threat of such action at least," he said. "And since we are threatened with a suit, the reputation of our paper is made." The only drawback to the progress of the suit is the lack of positive knowledge of just what county in Kansas the "libel" was uttered in, as the train has been moving so rapidly. The edition complained of was printed at night, "Somewhere in Kansas."

Senator Holden, of Warren, Democratic leader in the Ohio Senate, aboard the second section of the Cox Special, "grabbed off" three dining cars at St. Louis after the second section was run ahead of the first, leaving the other train only two. But he lost out in the scramble for the printing office, the band and the commissary car. Senator Holden's train was compelled to "go way back and sit down" when the party reached Kansas City, section one taking its place in the lead for the remainder of the trip across the continent.

Following is the song that everybody on the train has learned to sing, to the tune of "He Rumbled." O-h-i-o! O-h-i-o! The hills send back the cry. We're here to do or die. O-h-i-o! O-h-i-o! We'll nominate Cox.

Or know the reason why. And when we nominate That man from Ohio state We'll buy a keg of 2 per cent. And yell for O-h-i-o!

CAME HOME TO DIE

"Three years ago I came home thinking 2 or 3 weeks would be my limit to live. I had suffered for 15 years from colic attacks and severe liver and stomach trouble. I happened to see an advertisement of Mayer's Wonderful Remedy and purchased a bottle at the drug store and after taking the first dose I felt better than I had for 15 years. I am now in the best of health—thanks to Mayer's Wonderful Remedy." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Hunter's 2 Drug Stores.

"Changed Everything" Said Preacher.

Could Get No Relief Until He Tried Nerv-Worth, But It Soon Brought Desired Results

"For five years I have been in a very nervous condition," said Rev.
Mr. Torrey, 421 Erie Ave., Dayton, Ohio, and he goes on: "I didn't have nerve force to digest my food and I could eat only a few things. Doctors told me not to eat any cold lunches.
Gas would form on my stomach, and cause terrible bloating. My blood was also in very bad condition, and my circulation poor. My legs would get cold and numb and my hands would also get the same way. I could not find any relief it seemed until I took a bottle of Nerv-Worth and that changed everything. I am nervous no more and I can eat anything any time. My stomach and digestion are in fine condition and I have no more bloating. My circulation is good and there is no numbness and cold feeling in my legs and hands. I am feeling fine and have regained my health and vigor."

A statement of a minister is one of the most convincing of proofs. Nerv-Worth has been endorsed by many ministers, doctors, druggists, lawyers, public officials, and people from every walk of life. It has been known their praise because it does the work. It acts in a sensible way to help the sufferer back to health.
Nerv-Worth aids digestion, stops
the forming, neutralizes excess acids, drives out impurities, regulates the bowels, and it also gives nerve force to aid nervous ailments, gives sound restful sleep, tones and invigorates the whole system. Because they know that Nerv-Worth does the work, the manufacturers sell it on a money-back guarantee. Take a bottle home and use it and if you are not satisfied that it is helping you, your money will be cheerfully refunded.
See the Nerv-Worth man at Hunter's Drug Store.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, dandy hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.
It doesn't do much good to try to wash or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary quadrant, apply it at night when resting; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single strand and trace of it.
You will find, too, that all itching and stinging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four times as all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

U. S. SHOWS SLUMP IN GROWTH

Population of Country Put at 105,000,000

WASHINGTON — The population of the United States is estimated at 105,000,000 by J. A. Hill, chief statistician of the census bureau. His calculation is based on the combined populations of 1,405 cities and towns for which statistics have been announced. The increase over 1910 is placed at about 13,000,000, showing the growth of the country has not kept pace with previous decade. Almost complete cessation of immigration during the war is the chief reason assigned for the falling off in growth. Other suggestions were the two influenza epidemics, return of aliens to their native lands and deaths of soldiers abroad and at home during the war.

The aggregate population of the cities and towns on which the estimate was made is 41,029,384. This is an average gain of 26 per cent compared with 35 per cent in the previous decade.

DAUGHTER ARRIVES

A daughter weighing 8 1-2 pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Leach, 933 W. Wayne-st., at the City hospital this morning. She has been named Marjorie. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

SUES ON NOTE

John Fitzgerald has entered suit in court against William Wright and Alice Wright for $208 with interest from May 1, 1919, claiming the amount is due on a note given him by the Wrights for money received.

SCHOOL CHILDREN "TOO FAT," SAYS PHYSICIAN

VALLEY FALLS, Kan.—The parents of school children here undoubtedly are good "providers."

In every grade in the schools here the pupils are "too fat," according to Dr. A. H. Braden, who completed an examination the other day. In the eighth grade the average was from fifteen to fifty pounds too high. The heaviest boy tipped the beam at exactly 225 pounds.

DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

By PHYLIS PHILLIPS

COUSIN CECIL STILL REMAINS A PROBLEM

Wonders will never cease; neither will scandals, it seems! At the stuffy station that our train stopped at I descended for a breath of air, and while standing pensively on the platform I heard my name called in a strangely familiar and masculine voice. I looked up—and there stood Cecil himself, waving frantically as he ran down towards me.

I confess that I almost passed out from excitement and freight. The boy was certainly mad or something akin to that, to dare to follow me after all that had occurred at home. Still maybe you can imagine how I thrilled at the thought of his reckless courage! I did, for I am true female all through.

There was nothing for me to do under the circumstances but to stand rather coolly and look my ardent young cousin up and down—questioningly. This I did. Did it bother him in the least? It did not. Nay, little boy, everything I do seems but to thrill him and egg him on. I fancy this is the real form of true love. It's terrifying to the very young.

Dear, oh, dear, that mad boy had in some way found out that I was being sent up to Boston, in solitary confinement, or words to that effect, and he simply couldn't see it, and decided to follow me. Now, that he is here I do not know what is to be done with him. I am finished for if this leaks out at home.

Far Corn Cracked Corn and Shell-Corn at Dorsey's.

of my discomfiture. Men are truly queer animals. Oh, very animal—Cecil told me that the family has no idea that he is on his way to Boston, for he got the train long before I did, and in fact watched me being led by the family to my particular car. He told me also of how dad and mother had nearly come to blows over me and my growing indifference to the conventions—and of how mother said she would not have a daughter of hers trailing her name through the dirt, come what may. At this father, it seems, got peeved, and told mother that same mothers simply drove their daughters to desperation, etc., etc. I'm glad I have such a loyal champion. I can tell you.

The family thinks that Cecil has gone to visit some friends in Philadelphia, which is in an entirely different direction from my own. However, there is never any knowing just how much the family does really know, or suspect—that's what a family is for, after all, I think. Dear, oh, dear, that pro-voing Cecil is part of the family proper (no, improper), and I sit and stare at me; and I know not what to do with him at all, nor with myself, which is worse. And Boston, only fifty miles away!

“Dreco Has Done
The Work for Me”

Is full of energy and vitality since he gets good sleep every night.
Has big appetite and stomach digests fully. Rheumatism relieved.

Big Improvement in local man since he took Dreco, the great root and herb remedy

The plan of advertising the new medicine Dreco is so open and above board and shows such honesty of purpose on the part of the owners, it is small wonder that Dreco has strung into such popular favor everywhere it is introduced. You frequently read the testimonials printed by medicine companies from persons living in distant cities but with Dreco we print the testimonials from persons residing close by—many right here in the city, giving their true address, so if every word you read about Dreco was not true, we could soon be exposed. Here is one of the recent statements received from a responsible home town man.
“I am Mr. Oakley Hoover who is a partner on Air brakes in the E. &
S. Shops at Lima, O., and say—Dreco has surely done me a lot of good. My liver is active again so that I don't have that tired, drowsy, account feeling nor dizzy spells, he pains in my limbs, arms and back are all gone. My stomach is acting up, digesting everything I eat without causing gastritis, pains or uneasiness. I sleep all night long and wake refreshed and full of energy.
Dreco has ever helped me like Dreco has and for that reason I recom-end it to others.”
Dreco is the pure liquid extract of any different roots, herbs, barks or leaves, which act on the vital organs of the human body. After taking Dreco it is noticed that the stomach is soothed and the gassy condition eliminated; the liver becomes active, relieves headaches and that dull foggy feeling; nerves are quieted and induces sound sleep; the kidneys are strengthened; appetite increased, bowels act with ease and regularity and the whole system rests on renewed energy, vigor and activity; Dreco is harmless, pleasant taste and the effects are quickly felt.
All good druggists now sell Dreco.
It is highly recommended in Lima by Baldwin's Central Drug Store, corner Main and High-sts.

THE JOYS OF A CANDIDATE

NO sooner is a man a candidate for president than the feature writers get busy. They insist on knowing what said candidate eats for breakfast, what are his likes and dislikes in the way of food and clothing and his wife gets her share of attention along this line. They make sure that the world will know conclusively everything about the prospective first ladies of the land as well as concerning the prospective chief executives.

Senator Harding already is enjoying this attention and the man selected by the Democrats at San Francisco will come in for his share and his wife likewise. Many questions have to be answered to gratify the inquisitive reporters and the trials are many.

After all this has been taken care of it becomes necessary that a cigar be named after the candidates. Children by the hundreds are named after them and they are forced by fond parents to kiss youngsters by the score. Wherever the candidates go, whatever they do and everything they say is accurately recorded. It seems to be a very fascinating game to the men chosen for such important races do not appear to tire of the excitement attendant upon the requirements of these unwritten laws. It is one of the pleasant and characteristic traits of Americans that they want to know everything about everybody—especially when somebody has the spotlight focused upon him.

THE IMPENDING COAL FAMINE

A GAIN the nation is facing a serious shortage of coal; in fact a famine may result in certain parts unless prompt relief is forthcoming immediately. Several causes are operating together to bring about this condition, chief of which are the shortage of cars and the strikes on railroads. These strikes are "outlaw" affairs in that they are not sanctioned by heads of the big unions. They are, however, having serious effects and the public as usual probably will feel the effects.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has issued priority orders on open-top cars for the mines which will greatly relieve the conditions, but if the strikes continue and transportation is tied up this order will avail nothing.

The country has not recovered from the strike of miners last fall just as the winter weather was setting in. Statistics show that the shortage of bituminous coal now amounts to 35,000,000 tons. There is sufficient coal and enough miners to dig it if the cars can be had and moved.

Dealers in Lima are having considerable trouble in getting coal at any price. Many believe it will go higher and others think the government will step in and take control and force down prices. This is problematic and those who are able to buy their winter's coal from their dealer now should do so. Conditions look bad and may not be straightened out before snow falls.

MISS LIMA: "We have just read an article on 'The Art of Not Hearing.' If it will put a crimp in the gossip business, we are for it."

AS YOU LIKE IT

We wonder if the newspaper cameramen are ever a topic of conversation in the inner circle of the Newport set? Can't you imagine a couple of grand dames—(N. B.—Be careful to pronounce "dame" to rhyme with "same"). The "a" has a broad brim, as in "Panama"—can't you imagine, as we were saying when we were interrupted, a couple of these grand dowagers chatting thusly: "Well, my dear, how many times were you snapped today?" "Really"—business of elevating lorgnette—"I can't say. I seldom keep the score, don't you know." "Ah"—similar business—"I suppose not. Still, it's a bit of a nuisance. Next-see pos." IT'S THE MAN WHO COUNTS

BY ROGER W. BABSON

FOUR years at a university does not make an educated man or woman any more than a full set of tools makes a carpenter.

In either case it depends upon the man not on the machinery.

I know a chap with a string of degrees as long as your arm, yet I do not consider him educated. I know another, one of the most successful men of my acquaintance, who has been only to the grammar school, yet he can do a better job with his grammar school tools than most of the so-called "educated" fellows can do with their whole machine shop.

You see it isn't the tools you have, it's the way you use them that counts. We are educated only as we learn to solve problems.

Schools simply furnish the raw material to work on and a workshop to work in.

If you have felt that you are handicapped by lack of "higher education," stop it straight off.

With public schools, Y. M. C. A.'s and correspondence schools, we have workshops galore. Tools are cheap, and if you want to learn, nothing can stop you.

If you have to work daytimes and study nights, you have an advantage, because you can do some practical problems during the day.

GREAT CHANCE FOR C. OF C.

THE Lima Chamber of Commerce has a wonderful opportunity before it today. The chance to help perform one of the greatest services the city has had in years is waiting to be developed—the securing of a new postoffice building. The Chamber of Commerce is alive and on the job and is doing many things for Lima, but it may add to its laurels by getting after the new federal building and staying after it until it is a reality.

The Lima Advertising club has set the pace and already is preparing definite action. It is not an impossibility, but will require work. It is needed in Lima probably as much or more than any other public improvement. The antiquated structure now being used is out of date, too small and a disgrace to the city with the slogan that it leads. Let it lead in the matter of a new postoffice. Congressman Ben Welby is ready to help, in fact has been working more than three years while there has been comparatively little activity here. He is in Lima and every civic body should confer with him concerning the best way to proceed and then leave no stones unturned to secure this improvement.

IS THERE A PUBLIC?

THE decision recently handed down by a New York court that common carriers shall not consent to a strike of the handlers of produce, making it impossible for goods to be moved except on terms dictated by the unions, is an important landmark in the slowly defining status of the public. If the longshoremen are not so well off as might be, it is too bad; if they cannot agree with the carriers or the carriers with them, again too bad. Settle it if possible, and let each side get what it deserves, and, if possible, what it thinks it wants. But meanwhile, the rest of the country should not be expected to sit by and starve while the difficulties are adjusted. The decision rebukes the carriers—who are presumably capitalists—quite as much as the longshoremen. And it rebukes both in the name of everybody else who is not a direct party to the quarrel—that is the public.

SOLVING ONE PROBLEM

As soon as we heard that Calvin Coolidge, Governor of Massachusetts, had been nominated at Chicago for the vice presidency, we went to the telegraph office and sent him a night letter which read as follows:

"Dear Cal: We know that you live in a semi-detached house for which you pay a rental of $22.50 a month. We don't know how you get away with that sort of rent. But as long as you do, we are for you for vice president. Or anything else you run for. But that is not what we want to take up with you. Of course, you will be moving out of your double house and going to Washington in the near future and we would like to be the first on the ground to take over. Your house with its $22.50 rent. We have just been considering paying $125 a month for a box car. If you can see your way clear to making over your lease to us, we will vote for you and get all our friends to do likewise. We don't know where your house is. It makes no difference."

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

The early hours of this day are most fortunate. It is a lucky day for asking favors or financial assistance. This sign is favorable for women who will meet with success in professional as well as domestic fields. Danger threatens the life of the King of Spain, according to the stars. The Queen of Holland comes under a sign which indicates ill health in the late summer. Persons whose birthday this is will have a happy year. Children born today will be clever and successful. (Copyright 1920)

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

If he's a man of powerful voice, They hail him as "The people's choice."

They herald him as "safe and sane" If business is his domain.

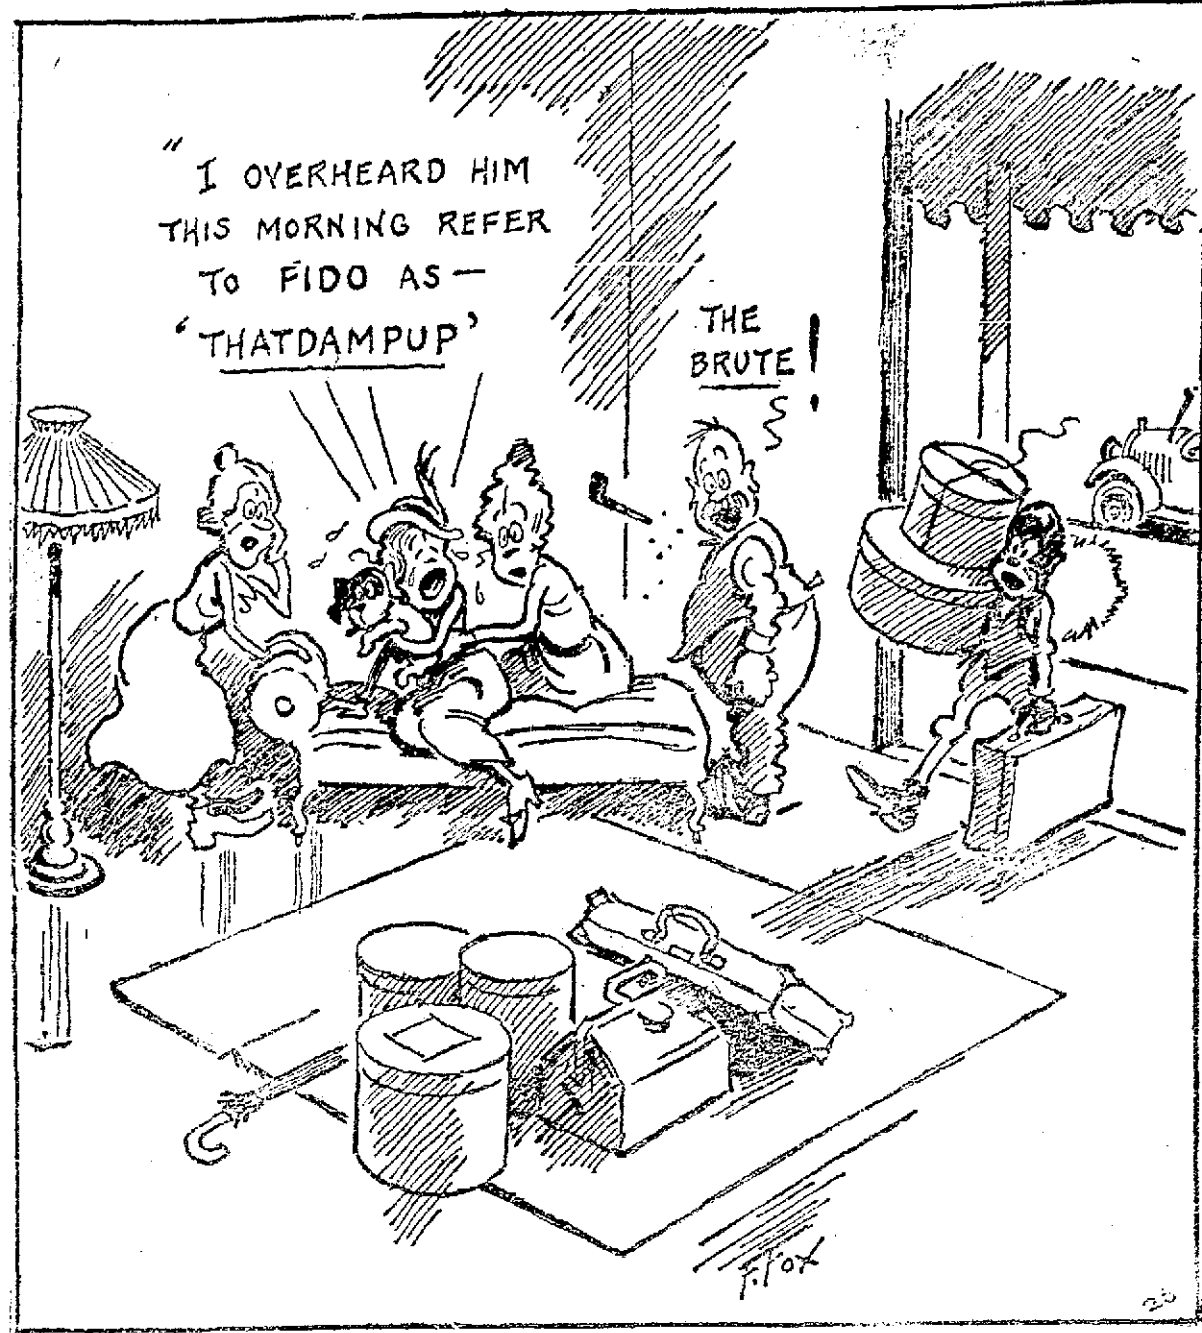

If statesmanship is what he's at, They label him "a diplomat." If he has fought the battle grim, A "hero" is the name of him.

But if he's just of common bent, A plain, tax-paying sort of gent, Who helps elect these men of note, He's known, quite rightly, as "the goat."

A SON PROVES HIS USEFULNESS

There is at least one son in Dodge City who cannot be criticised for any lack of devotion to his father. "Dad," said the boy to his father yesterday, "there are some advantages in having a boy like me in the family. I have noticed that you are no longer called upon for explanations every time a few extra hairpins are found in our automobile." —Dodge City Globe.

The June Bride Has Left Her Husband Forever and Come Back Again to Home and Mother

YOUR NAME

By Philip Francis Nowlan
VARIATIONS — Roussel, R. O. S. S. E. L.

RACE: ORIGIN—Norman-French. SOURCE—A nickname. The family name of Russell is, in a sense, akin to that of Red, and its variations, Reed and Read, comes from an old English word meaning "red," which, however, was of Norman rather than Anglo-Saxon speech.

This word was "rouse," and has survived today only as "russet," with a meaning (brownish-red) somewhat different from the original.

As might be expected, it was, together with the sobriquet "le Red," just about as widespread as red hair was, for apparently there is no personal characteristic which the human eye singles out more quickly in a man to differentiate him from his fellows than a red head.

The name "le Rouse" and "le Russet" appears frequently in the old records, the so-called "hundred Rolls," the "Munimenta Gild" of the London Guildhall, etc.

An explanation for the name Rouse, which form is also found among the old records, but an explanation which probably has little foundation of fact, is that this name was derived from the nationality of one of the original bearers; in other words, that it means "the Russian." While great many names are known positively to have taken their origin from nationality, the evidence is against the claim in this case, for it was not customary among the medieval English, who knew little of the lands to the east of them beyond the shores of Germany, to make any distinction between the races inhabiting them, all of whom they referred to as Easterlings. This objection, however, does not apply to the explanation in cases where the name has come to the United States from other countries.

Individuals who maintain a stagnant pool usually have cold feet. "Poor circulation," look sallow, quarrel with their livers for no reason at all, the poor liver being utterly passive and indifferent; they are pessimistic or gloomy, getting the blues over trifles, which physically trained individuals laugh away. They are shallow thinkers, "nervous," poorly nourished, as a doctor would say (meaning underweight) or flabby and obese after the age of thirty.

The most effective way to find out whether your splanchnic pool is stagnant is by turning half a dozen somersaults each night and morning for a month. If you feel no better your trouble is not stagnation. If you feel better, the keep-a-turning as long as you continue walking on your hind legs.

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

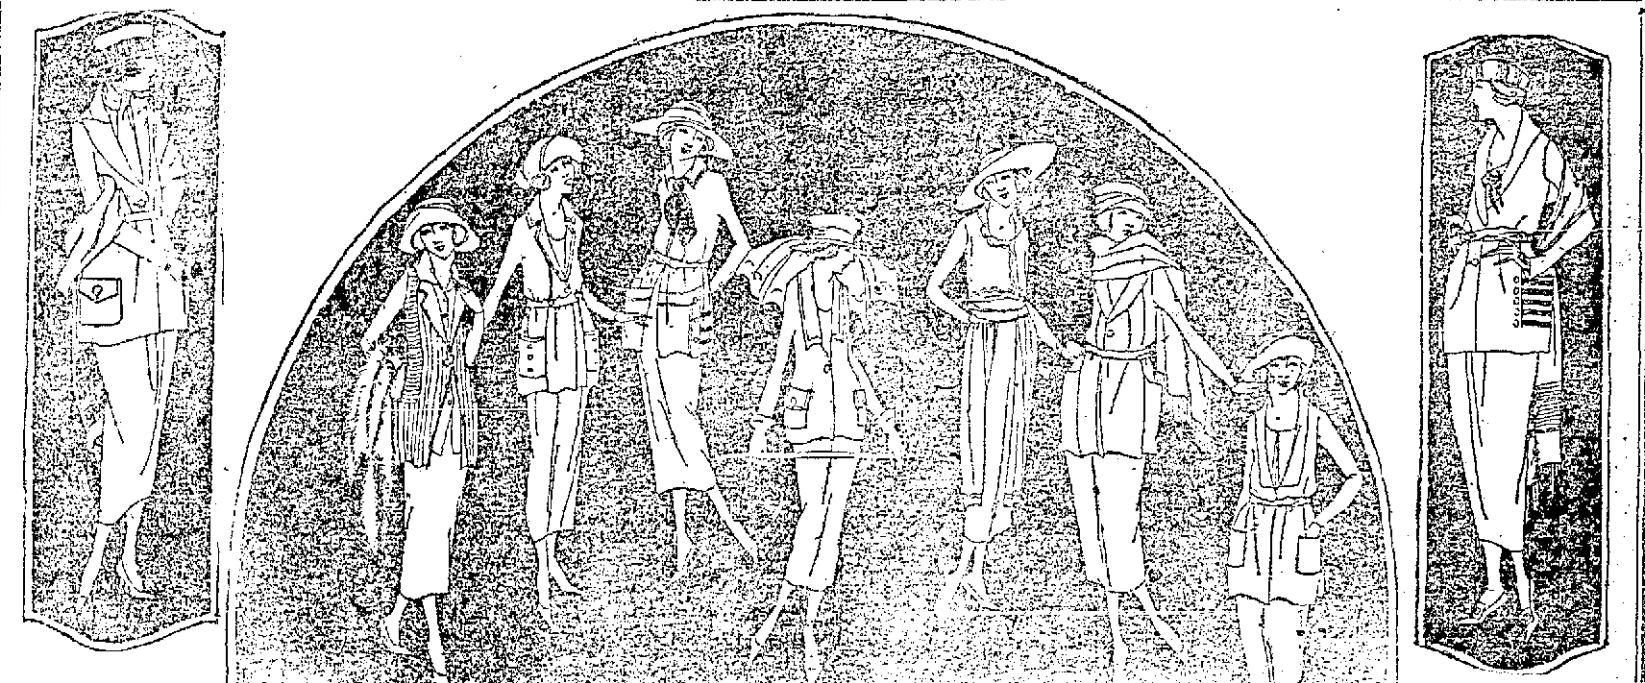

Ripples on the Splanchnic Pool. Stagnant water does not purify itself as does the water of the river or brook. Neither does stagnant blood purify itself.

I have a secret to divulge. It is one which the quacks and nostrum makers have pretended to know, but have carefully kept to themselves. How is the blood purified? By taking a physic? Nonsense. Then, or taking sarsaparilla or some such flimsy? More nonsense. Well, give it up. The blood is purified by the oxygen it absorbs in the lungs. Air purifies it, just as the air purifies the water of a running stream. Some impurities or waste matters produced by the human engine are removed by a process of sedimentation just as gross impurities are removed from running water; but most of our self-produced poisons and toxic wastes are destroyed by burning, by oxidation. This requires some oxygen, which we are free to absorb from the air we breathe. Free air is on tap everywhere nowadays. Better grab your share while it is free—certainly some captain of industry will find a way to control this indispensable commodity ere long.

In the abdominal and chest cavities there are an infinite number of intercommunicating vessels capable of holding one-third of the entire blood of the body. In the state known as shock they do hold most of the blood of the body. Under other less spectacular circumstances these blood vessels of the splanchnic region keep a large part of the blood stagnating and hence not purifying itself. The splanchnic vessels seem to acquire this habit as we grow older. Some of us grow older younger than we should. Sometimes the splanchnic pool is stagnant even in childhood, mollycoddled childhood, but undecorated below the collar bones. But it is from the age of about 15 years in girls and about 17 in boys that the splanchnic pool commonly begins to stagnate. That is the age when we first assume false dignity, in the shape of corsets or corset-like undergarments and high heels; or long

JUDITH of BLUE LAKE RANCH

By JACKSON GREGORY.

THE OLD TRAIL

On the Blue Lake Ranch there was more than one man ready to go off at the idea of a robbery like this one, frank enough to voice the suspicion: "It's just a stall for time." So much had last week's rumor done for them, preparing them to expect something that would set aside the customary monthly pay-day. But when they had seen Charlie Miller's head and heard his story, when they had sat on their horses and looked down at the animal which had been shot under Bud Lee, they were silent. And, besides, when they saw the dark, thin, gaunt man and the girl who came in from the canyon from a fruitless quest, their pay was ready for them as normally in gold and silver.

Major Langworthy imbibed an unusually large number of cocktails and long before noon of the following day he suggested that the ranch be put to immediately under military law, naming that a military-mustached gentleman be appointed commanding general of the Blue Lake forces, and naming within his own mind the picture of himself in the office, revolver in hand, cocktail at elbow, dictating the manoeuvres from this point of vantage, not to say safety. The Langworthy ruffled his feathers and smiled when Judith's name was mentioned. It was perfectly clear to her that all the ruffians of the West would be quick to take the advantage arising from the ridiculous condition of a rowdy girl assuming a man's pantaloons.

"I am rather inclined to think," said Marcia, "that you don't do Judith justice."

Trippers, with little to say to any one, took his departure in the forty moon, extracting from Hampton the promise to ride over and see the lumber-camp some day soon.

Judith, held at the office by a lot of first-of-the-month details, did not get away until close to eleven o'clock that morning. Then she rode slowly down the river, a purpose of her own in mind. At the word with Charlie Miller who had long ago forgotten his own hurt in his and anger that he had lost ten thousand dollars for her.

"What a thousands dollars," Charlie said, laughing at him. "Well, he and make many a thousand before the year dies."

Just below the Lower End settlement she came upon Doc Tripp. He was in one of the quarantine hog-corn, his sleeves rolled up, a puzzled look of worry puckering his boyish face.

"What's up, Doc?" asked Judith. "Don't know, Judy. That's what's my mad up. Just performed an autopsy on one of your Poland-China gifts."

"Found it dead?" asked Judith. "Killed it," granted Tripp. "Sick, damn down more are off their feed, and don't look right. A man's afraid of the cholera. And."

"Subsidiary," I won't believe it! There's been no chance of infection; there's not an infected hog here on the side of the Bailey ranch, sixty miles the other side of Rocky Point.

A clean hundred miles from here. But, just the same, I'm taking temperatures this morning and having my herders cut out all the dull-looking ones and break the herds up."

"Not getting nerves? Are you, Doc?" And Judith spurred on down the valley.

Before she came to the spot where Bud Lee's horse had been shot she came upon Lee himself. A rifle across his arm, he was looking up at the cliffs of Squaw Creek canon.

"Well, Lee," she said, "what do you make of it?"

"He showed no surprise at seeing her and answered slowly, that far away look in his eyes as though he were alone still and speaking simply to Bud Lee.

"Using smokeless powder nowadays is a handy thing for a man shooting under cover," he said. "Then rig up your gun with a silencer and get off at fair range, half a mile and up, with a telescope sight, and it's real nice fun picking folks off!"

"All of that spells preparation," suggested Judith.

"He nodded. When he offered no further remark but sat staring up at the cliffs, Judith asked:

"What else have you learned by coming back down here? Anything?"

"There were two men, anyway. I'd guess, three. The one who stuck up Charlie and then drifted while the drifting was good. Then the two other jaspers that tried to wing me."

"How do you know that?"

"My horse that was shot," he explained, "got it in the left side of the neck. Now, look at that hole in the little fir-tree yonder."

Judith saw what he meant now. At this point Lee yesterday had heard the second bullet singing dangerously near. It had struck some point off to the right of the canon. Her eyes went swiftly after his up the cliff walls.

"I doped it out while I was running," he went on. "Look at the way the trees grow here. If a man was on the cliffs shooting at me, and coming that close to winging me, why, he'd have to be off to the right. These big pines would shut him off from the other side. It's open and shut there were two of them. And darn good shots," he added dryly.

Briefly he went on to give her the rest of the results of his two-hour seeking for something definite. If she'd ride on a little she'd come to the spot where his horse had been killed; she would see in the road the signs where, at Tripp's orders, the carcass had been dragged away. From there, looking off to the left, up the cliffs, she would see the spot, which Lee believed had harbored one of the riflemen. High above the canon rose the rocky pinnacle he had marked yesterday, with brush standing tall in a little depression.

"Indian Head," broke in Judith, gazing upward. "Bud Lee, I'll bet a horse you're right."

"And," said Lee, swinging from should have told you about it. It's not a story, but he'd know, if he rode to the ranch-house where Judith the old Indian Trail. If the man knows anything, that he'd have to with no word of adieu, left Lee to go to the house. Lee made a late lunch, saddled another horse, and when the bunk-house clock stood at a quarter of four, started for the Upper End.

Sure Relief

"That girl's got the savvy," was his own remark to himself.

on—Lee was back at her side, saying shortly:

"What do you think? There's a plain trail up here, old as the hills, but tip-top for speedy going."

"And," said Judith without looking up, "it runs down into the next saddle, to the north of that ridge, curves up again and with monuments all along the way, runs straight to the Upper End and comes down from the northeast to the lake."

Lee looked at her, wondering.

"You knew about it all the time, then?"

"If we hadn't been on our high horses," she told him quietly. "I

Black and White in Milady's Hat is Still Rule

The majority of women never tire of black and white. In summer hats especially this combination is a great favorite. The all white hat is rather dead looking, and while a white hat with colored trimming may be very pretty there is a likelihood of its appearing somewhat insipid unless created by an artist. A touch of black on a white hat, whether small knot of ribbons, ornament of feather always adds a bit of smartness.

Among the newest bags for shopping of fancy work, now being shown in some of the Lima stores, is one of black oilcloth, cut in basket pattern with handle attached. The bag is cut in two parts and fastened together with coarse buttonhole stitches done in bright work. A bag of this kind is not only knobby, but useful.

In some of the dress styles shown are hand knotted fish net, which is used extensively on many of the mid summer dresses for aprons and tunics. One of these resembles coarse lattice work, with delicate flowers running in trellis fashion from the bottom of the tunic to the waistline.

LOVE AND MARRIED LIFE

By IDAH MCGLOONE GIBSON.
THE ANTICS OF A WIFE

"I am awfully sorry that you are going away," said Ruth again as we entered my room. "Somehow I had a feeling that you were going to leave here for a long time," then Ruth stopped and blushed.

"I don't know why you should have thought that," I said.

"Forgive me, dear, for thinking that perhaps you were happier here than anywhere else."

"I am."

"Then why do you leave?"

"Because it has come to me lately that my husband needs me more than ever before, and that perhaps I need my husband."

"But you have your child," said Ruth, rather wonderingly.

"It is because I have my child that I realize, dear Ruth, that my husband and I should be together, should divide our responsibilities."

"But the children, Katherine, really are the mother's responsibilities, the mother's cares. Fathers have very little to do with them until they are old enough to go out in the world."

THE GREAT MISTAKE

That is just where you are wrong, Ruth. That is just where you have made your mistake—your great mistake. If you had allowed Bobby to have some of the responsibilities of the children, if you had considered him as a part of your family life after your children had come, I believe that you would have been ideally happy and he would have been perhaps happier with you than with his father.

"Do you think so?" asked Ruth with pitiable eagerness.

"Oh, of course, one can not tell," I remarked hastily, for I did not want her to feel that she was entirely to blame. In fact, I knew that she was not wholly to blame. However, someone always begins a quarrel with an estrangement and usually the one

Tomorrow—Some Modern Ideas

Strawberry Recipes

Here are also a few recipes for using some of the smaller, less perfect berries which are not good for canning.

Strawberry Sauce—One cup of crushed strawberries, two tablespoons of boiling water, two tablespoons of butter, three-quarters cup of powdered sugar.

Cream and butter with the sugar and gradually add water, beating well, and finally the crushed strawberries.

Simple Strawberry Ice Cream—One quart of strawberries, one quart of thin cream, one and one-half cups of sugar.

Mash the strawberries, mix with the sugar and let stand for one hour. Then force thru a sieve, add the cream and freeze.

Strawberry Shortcake—Two cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, three-quarters cup milk, one-quarter cup lard or other shortening.

Mix and sift the dry ingredients, cut in the shortening with two knives and add the milk gradually, using a knife to mix.

Divide into two portions. Put one-half into an oiled pan, spread with melted butter and place the other half on top. Bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes. Split where the layers were buttered.

After the berries are thoroughly washed remove the hulls and at the same time sort them. The small ones are to be crushed, sprinkled generously with sugar and set in a warm place to draw out the juice. The larger ones should be left whole for the top.

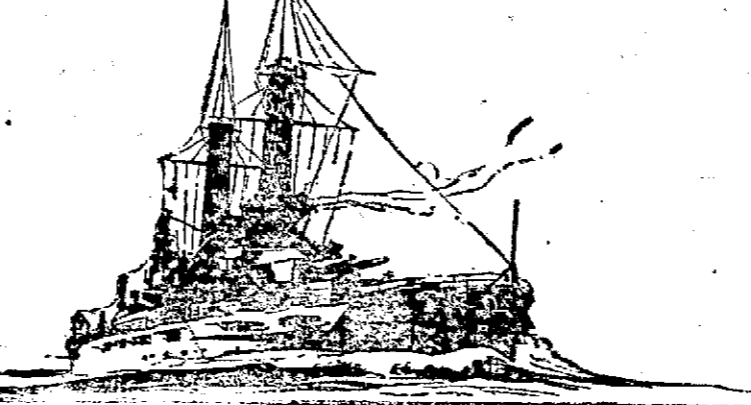

The sweetened berries are then placed between the layers, the top spread with whipped cream and the whole berries imbedded in the cream.

WAPAKONETA—Angliaize-co. records show 49 dealers have taken out licenses to sell cigarettes another year, and two wholesale dealers. Amount paid for licenses is $2,850.

Just four days more remain of our great Downward price drive. We have been traveling a merry clip to keep pace with the demands of the buying public.

The benefits derived from our bold step to reduce the high cost of clothing can hardly be figured in dollars and cents. It has forced others into line and has had a greater effect to bring prices down than we had anticipated. We certainly made up in friends what we lost in profits. Consequently we feel well repaid.

GIRL DISCHARGED FOR WEARING GEORGETTE WAIST

OMAHA, Neb.—Following her discharge as elevator operator in the Union Pacific Headquarters when she came to work wearing a georgette crepe waist which her employer asserted was "no waist at all," Miss Tillie Hoffman appealed to Mayor Ed Smith in behalf of the working girls of Omaha to officially sanction the waist as hot weather garb. "I don't want to be an elevator operator all my life," she explained, in urging the right of every working girl to wear a georgette crepe waist instead of the regulation white shirt waist.

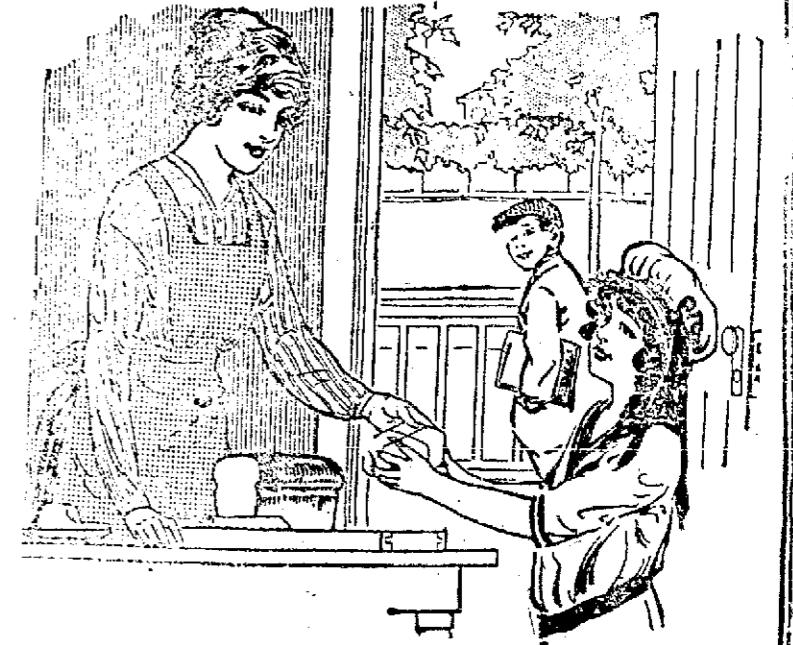

The Mayor, after examining the waist, issued a statement approving it.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED AND EARNED

JANE PHILIPS

GERRY'S SUCCESS

I had been anxious to have the flat Robert spoke of for a long time. He was such a sociable, fun-loving fellow. Frank and I had been so much that it was partly on this account I desired to move. Then we had one more room, all the rooms were larger, and the apartment much more convenient in every way.

We moved the first of the following month. Jane and Betty were delighted to have us in the same building, and we spent many good times for the coming winter.

I was now doing an average of four hours' work a day. That meant nearly $50 a week to add to what Robert was getting. And it in no way interfered with our home life. I can realize now it might have done so. I had been very young, had a number of acquaintances who visited me, or whom I wanted to see, but I easily see how it might have been impossible to keep my home life as I did and work outside. You had plenty of time for good, simple amusement, and enjoyed yourself all the more because I shared all my pleasures with Robert.

I had taken great time in fitting up our apartment, and had spent considerable to do so. Robert and I talked this over together.

"We will buy good things, substantial furniture, but it will last," he had declared, and I had agreed with him. But when it came to carpets, or curtains, or my own ideas. When we were ready for our second housewarming I was perfectly satisfied with our comfortable and really artistic home.

Mary and Gerry came. Little Gerry, named after his father. They were so happy and perfectly satisfied with the flat with each other that it was almost to have them when we could look at them.

"I am so glad I don't have a minute to myself," said Mary. "I am so glad I don't have a minute to myself," said Mary. "I am so glad I don't have a minute to myself," said Mary.

"Between the baby and her flowers I hardly have a wife this summer," Gerry declared. "Gerry had been born in the early spring. Gerry might have come to any he had little of her coming."

"You liked the flowers, but of course you don't care for the baby," Mary teased her. "Gerry more than Mary did."

We had a delightful time, and Robert was so happy, such a perfect host, that as I looked at him the words of our neighbors came to me. "To have the best of both worlds."

Yes, that was it, to cherish. At first I had thought I was given a perfect home, but now I knew that of all things in the world I was given the most precious, if it is to be a home, the love that brings happiness and contentment.

It also came to me that it was the woman's part to cherish. It was more than the man's. He would cherish her, take care of her, as possible, but she must not only cherish him, but love him. If she would keep it, it was hers.

I have said nothing about Marion. She was not only one of the best in the house, but she was the best. She was always at her post, and only when she made a plea for help.

I couldn't refuse her, Gerry, after all, I had to love her. But they were very kind to me, and I would like to help Marion if I can."

"SICK ABED" IS RICH COMEDY

Almost Every Scene Contains Laugh Provokers

RUN RULES IN LIMA FILMS

Many Screen Stars Greet Movie Fans at Week End

BY ESTHER WAGNER

One of the cleverest comedies of the year will be seen in this city soon when Wallace Reid appears in his newest picture "Sick Abed." Most of Wall's recent comedies are above reproach, but this is so much cleaner, sportier and is it been directed and so adroitly does the star manage his role that the picture easily slips into the A class. Almost every scene is a laugh. The scenario, Clara Kennedy has had excellent material in the original play which was written by Ethel Watts Mumford, and she has handled it most advantageously. Sam Wood, the director, has won a like sympathy with the spirit of the play, and it is largely due to him that the many amusing scenes are a success.

Comedy comes naturally to Wallace Reid. This role exploits his ability and originality to a much greater degree than have some of his recent vehicles. A capable cast supports him. Bebe Daniels is clever as the nurse and the Chinese servant is an interesting study as interpreted by George Kuntz.

Regent Mack Sennett's "Down On The Farm" is at the Regent today, together with "A Fugitive From Matrimony" with H. B. Warner.

NOTES

Katherine MacDonald wears some historic lace in "The Notorious Miss Leslie." It was worn by one of her ancestors at the inauguration of George Washington.

A fashion show in Bebe Daniels' first starring vehicle "You Never Can Tell" gives the glorious Bebe splendid opportunity to wear startling clothes.

Alice Brady is in New York City, where she is making her fourth Realart picture.

Betty Blythe is married. She has been married since April 11 to Paul Scardon, a director.

Mr and Mrs. Carter De Haven will screen "Twin Beds." Mr. De Haven will play the Italian Signor Monti. Following this picture, the De Havens will make "The Girl in The Taxi."

Betty Compson, who made such a hit in "The Miracle Man" is heading her own company now, and has completed her first starring vehicle "Prisoners of Love."

"Little Miss Rebellion" is the title of the next Paramount picture which will star droll Dorothy Gish.

DENTISTS USE UP MORE PLATINUM THAN JEWELERS

CHICAGO — Twice as much platinum has been used in dentistry as in jewelry. This statement by Dr. George Frederick Kuntz in a recent report on precious stones and minerals will prove a surprise to the public, in view of the fact that for several years platinum has been the favorite setting for diamonds and the most fashionable form of jewelry. The estimates cited by Dr. Kuntz, which he considers too low, are that of the 5,000,000 or more ounces of platinum in existence, crystallizing processes have consumed 500,000 ounces, dental uses, 1,000,000 ounces, chemical apparatus 1,000,000 ounces, electrical devices, 500,000 ounces and jewelry 500,000 ounces. At $105 an ounce, the minimum price set by the Government, the value of the metal consumed by dentistry is $105,000,000, as against $53,500,000 used in all the platinum jewelry in the world.

TIES FEATURE INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE--DEISEL-WEMMER HOLDS FIRST PLACE

OHIO STEEL, LOCOMOTIVE AND GRAMM BERNSTEIN ALL CLAIM SECOND HONORS—GARFORD AND SOLAR FIGHT FOR SIXTH POSITION

WITH THREE TEAMS tied for second place, with two tied for sixth and with one team leading by a margin of only one game, it looks like there will be some fur flying in the Industrial League games of Saturday.

One of the ties at least, is going to be broken because Ohio Steel and Gramm Bernstein who hold second place, are scheduled to meet each other, it doesn't look like the game will go to a tie until darkness, so one of them will have to come out the victor, and one of them will have to step back a notch.

The Deisel Wemmer aggregation stepped into first last Saturday partly by means of a victory over the Garford team, and partly thru the kindness of the Ohio Steel nine with whom they were tied at that time.

The steel workers very graciously lost to the Locomotive works, relinquishing their claim on the top position.

The league leaders are scheduled to meet the Solar Refinery outfit. It would be no surprise at all if the refinery boys would slip one over on the top notchers, and if they do, there may be a head leader for the league Saturday night.

East Iron and Locomotive will go into a clinch at the Murphy-stadium, accompanied by the Ohio Steel and Gramm Bernstein teams.

Garford and Chalmers will meet at Fenot park.

Chalmers, altho at the bottom, holds that the season isn't far enough advanced to determine who's coming out on top, and they still have hope of climbing into the first division at least.

Because of the factory picnic scheduled at McBeth's park Saturday by the workers at the Deisel Wemmer plant, the Industrial League council granted a petition on the part of the digarmakers to transfer their contest with the Solar team from Fenot park to McBeth park.

The game will therefore be played at McBeth as the feature event of the Deisel Wemmer picnic.

PIRATES CLAIM CLEVER FIRST BASEMAN

In Charlie Grimm the Pirates gave a young first sacker who is rapidly making good. He is one of the clearest fielding first basemen now in the league and covers a wide range of territory around the initial station.

He has suffered some what from a batting slump this spring, but is beginning to hit in normal fashion, and is not to be lightly regarded by enemy pitchers. Three years ago Grimm was selling soda pop and wore cards at the Cardinal's park.

He received a trial with the Cardinals, then under the management of Jack Hendricks, and was turned over to the Little Rock club of the Southern Association for his lack of experience. The Pirates bought him from Little Rock and he is now endeavoring to prove to Barney Dreyfus that the investment was a wise one.

SHINE TOSSERS THINKING

Already some of the ex-shine hall pitchers are using their heads. They may throw the "sailors" anyway. According to Allan Sothoron of the St. Louis Browns, here's how:

"After the ball is once hit with the bat it leaves a mark on the smooth cover, and this one bruise will enable the pitchers to use this spot in throwing a ball that mysteriously comes up so that the batters imagine it is floating up to them.

Pitchers like Cicotte, Eller, and others will be able to throw the so-called sailers without rubbing the ball on our uniforms.

"If batters think they are going to have an easy time making base hits this year they are mistaken, for it is going to be just as difficult as ever."

ALTROCK BIG GATE CARD

Foxy Griff, manager of the Nats, says he doesn't dare go on the road without Nick Altrock.

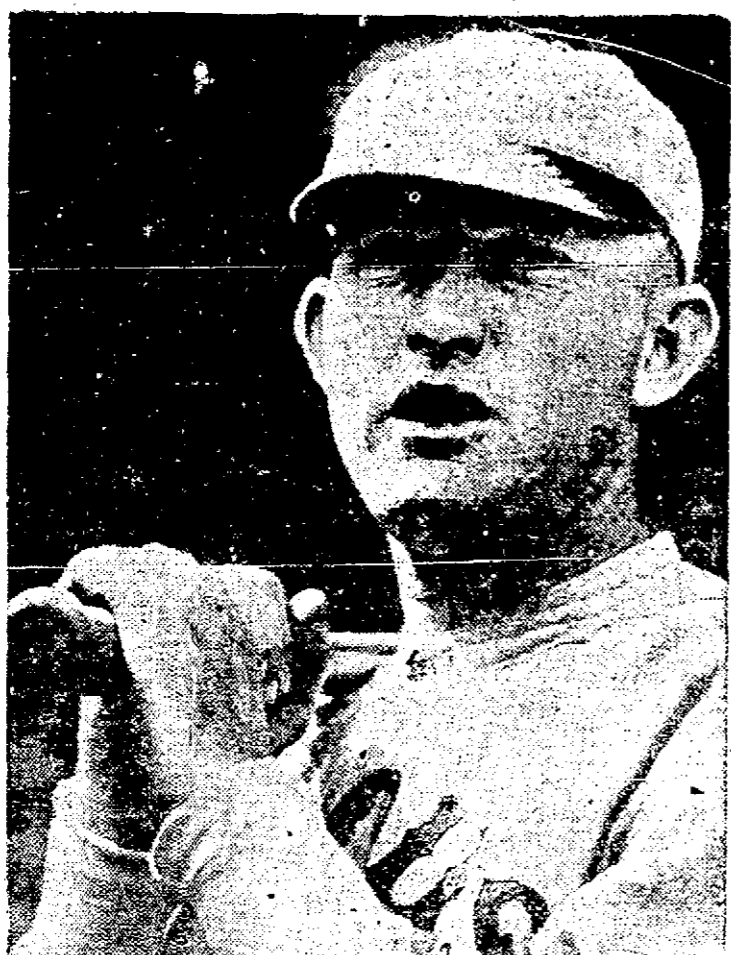

Griff says: "Say, I want to tell you all something. If I ever come to New York or went to Cleveland without Altrock, I'd be mobbed. One day last year I went to Cleveland and left Nick at home."

"These Cleveland fans nearly took my life. If words would have killed me alive I'd have been picked clean. I'm telling you, I was in all the papers and hooted in the field. I don't dare let that go on here, either. People simply demand the stars."

HORNSBY CAN PICK OUT ANY OF 'EM AND MAKE 'EM COUNT HITS

In these hard days of home runs galore by Babe Ruth and the general slugging going on in most American league games little attention is being paid to the National league pickers. But the startling assertion of Grover Cleveland Alexander the other day that Rogers Hornsby is the greatest hitter in the game that brings the fans up with a jolt.

Off hand, a gent is inviting the merry hal ha! when he tries to pull the great hitter chatter without using Ruth's name. But Alec comes thru with dope which takes his charges out of the joke class. Says Alec:

"Babe Ruth is the wonder-slugger of baseball. There never was another like him for hitting homers. But for frequent, consistent hitting Rogers Hornsby is the greatest hitter I have ever faced. He will make more clean hits a year than Ruth. He will pick out the right ball to pick just as easily as Ruth does. He can hit anything. I've tried to fool him in every way and it can't be done. He times the fast ones, the teasers, and curves to a T."

When Alec made this statement he had pitched to Hornsby eleven times this season and the Cardinal star had slugged out a home run, two triples, a double and a single. This gives him a batting average of .419 for those eleven trips.

There's no doubt about Hornsby being a great hitter and his infighting adds greatness to his name. He ranks with the best the National league has produced, not excluding the great Hans Wagner. In grace Hornsby rivals the one and only Napoleon Lajoie.

Two years ago the Cubs wanted to give the Cards $75,000 for Hornsby. Last winter McGraw tried to tempt Ricker with $100,000. Now the New York owners have offered 200,000 iron men for the beauty and Ricker is again saying no.

Alec's dope doesn't listen far from wrong when these figures are considered.

INDIAN DROPS OUT OF BIG LEAGUES

The Indian has disappeared temporarily at least from the major leagues. Jim Thorpe carried away the last of the feathers and war paint when he departed from the Boston Braves.

But, according to all reports, there are two redmen now in the minors who may get a shot in the majors before many moons. Big league scouts are watching them now.

Both of the braves are with the Little Rock team in the American Association. One of them, Wano, is a first baseman, and the other, Yellowhorse, is a pitcher. Wano is a polished fielder and has been leading the club in hitting. He had some experience with the club last fall. This is Yellowhorse's first.

FINALS ON
COLUMBUS, O.—Mrs. Katherine Starbuck and Mrs. B. I. Graham, both of Columbus, were to meet today in the final round to decide the women's state golf championship. The match was to take place over an 18 hole course. Mrs. Starbuck defeated Mrs. Printz of Oakland Country Club and Mrs. Graham defeated Miss Kinney of Cleveland in the semi-finals yesterday.

BABE GETS 'EM ALL THE TIME AND ANYWHERE

COLUMBUS, O.—"Babe" Ruth, who has been credited with 20 home runs in major league games, this year, rapped out a full circuit clout here yesterday in an exhibition game between the New York Yankees and the Columbus Panhandles, a local semi-pro team. The visitors won 10 to 1.

Yesterday's home run will not be credited to Ruth's official score, as it was made in an exhibition game.

JOHN MCGRAW RECOGNIZING YOUTH

Art Fletcher is gone and Larry Doyle is sitting on the bench. In that one line a whole volume of a change in the policy of the New York Giants is told. It means that John McGraw has been forced to recognize youth. The pilot of the Giants, an institution of baseball, has never been a developer of new players. He preferred buying finished players to the uncertainty of experimenting with youngsters.

A crop of youngsters broke into prominence almost annually, but never with the Giants. Frank Firsch made a precedent last season, but he was made when he came to the Giants from Verdham University.

McGraw clung to Fletcher and Doyle until the stands raised a roar. Fletcher went to the Phils and Doyle, one of the oldest veterans in the game, has been displaced by Sicking at third base. President Stoneham, one of the wealthiest men in the league, admits a change in the Giant policy.

The club is going out after a youngster and is going after them this season. Money means nothing more to the Giant club than the stroke of a pen on a check, but it is availing them nothing.

One offer of $200,000 for Rogers Hornsby, a player not worth half that much on the scales of worth, was turned down and the New York management was brought to the realization that buying is a lost art.

More young players are to be secured immediately by the Giants in an effort to pull from the bottom of the ladder that was rated as a pennant contender before the end of the season.

INDIAN DROPS OUT OF BIG LEAGUES

The Indian has disappeared temporarily at least from the major leagues. Jim Thorpe carried away the last of the feathers and war paint when he departed from the Boston Braves.

But, according to all reports, there are two redmen now in the minors who may get a shot in the majors before many moons. Big league scouts are watching them now.

Both of the braves are with the Little Rock team in the American Association. One of them, Wano, is a first baseman, and the other, Yellowhorse, is a pitcher. Wano is a polished fielder and has been leading the club in hitting. He had some experience with the club last fall. This is Yellowhorse's first.

FINALS ON
COLUMBUS, O.—Mrs. Katherine Starbuck and Mrs. B. I. Graham, both of Columbus, were to meet today in the final round to decide the women's state golf championship. The match was to take place over an 18 hole course. Mrs. Starbuck defeated Mrs. Printz of Oakland Country Club and Mrs. Graham defeated Miss Kinney of Cleveland in the semi-finals yesterday.

MUTT AND JEFF—SPEAKING ABOUT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING!

By BUD FISHER

Short Shavings

He was one of the rising, one of those heroes who had sailed from the United States just before the armistice and had reached France just in time to turn around and start home again. He had never explored inland even as far as Camp Pontancourt.

But the gushing lady who met the ship at the pier in Hoboken, anxious to do something for the boys, didn't know that. She saw him come down the gangplank, and near the Red Cross coffee stand she cornered him.

"Oh, tell me!" she gasped. "Tell me all about it! What horrors you must have been through! What experiences! What soul regeneration! You cannot have come out of it all as you went in! Tell me what great lesson you learned—what wonderful truth must have impressed itself upon your mind!"

"Yes'm," answered the soldier obediently. "I found out that lemon-meringue ain't no good for snail-knives."

—The Home Sector.

Said the humorous man in a trousers: "This morning I've dropped a roll of notes with a rubber elastic around them."

"Yes, I have," cried half a dozen at once.

"Well," said the funny man, calmly. "I've just picked up the elastic."

"Marry that young snip? Certainly not! He is only after your money, and he is, in my opinion, a fool."

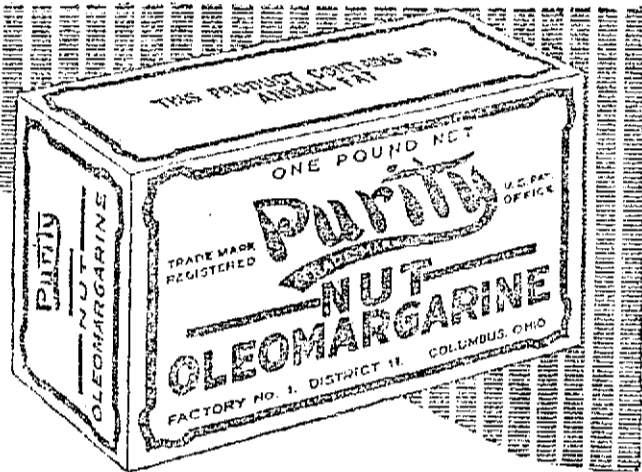

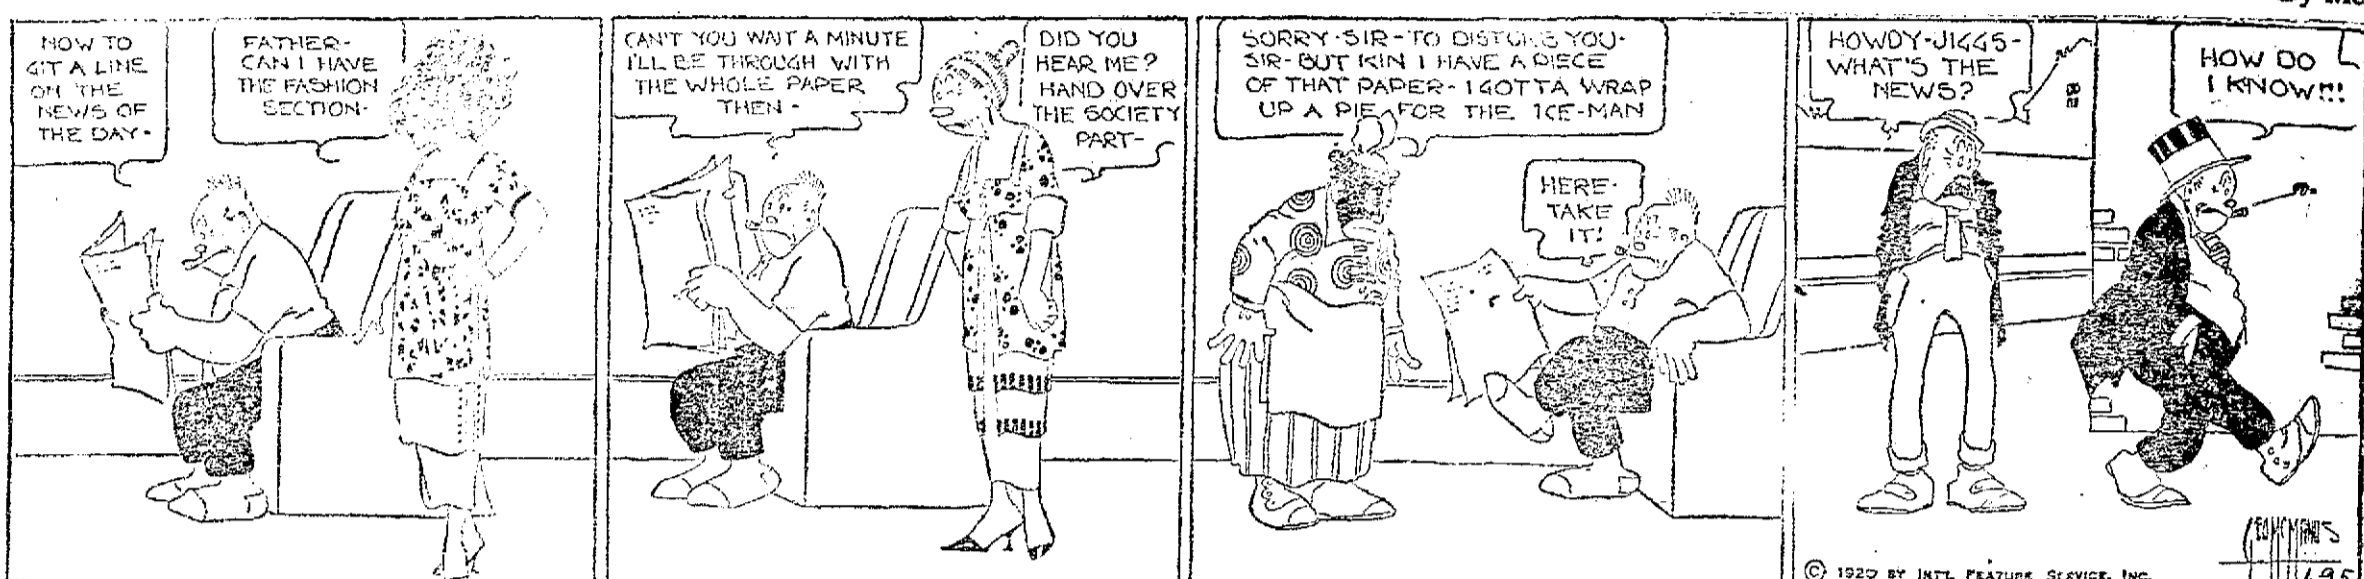

"You are unjust, father, Harold swears he would marry me if I had not a penny."

"Huh! Then he is even a greater fool than I thought him to be!"
